

Winston Terrell Group, Inc.
Campaign Management

The Principals of the Winston/Terrell Group have a proven track record of success in campaign management and strategic development of campaigns. By developing comprehensive, inclusive, grass-roots strategies based upon considerable and practical experience, the firm has helped elect candidates on the local, state and federal level.

Robin Winston, former Chairman of the Indiana Democratic Party and Pat Terrell, former Political Director for the Indiana Democratic Party, serve as principals of the firm. During their terms at the Indiana Democratic Party from 1997-2001, they helped elect Evan Bayh to the United States Senate, win the Indianapolis mayor's race for the first time in thirty-two years, secure control of the Indiana House of Representatives and re-elect Governor Frank O'Bannon.

Here is a brief snapshot of their work:
